ARREST OF STREET CORNER PREACHERS.

For months past, as is well known, three or four of the ten or twelve members of the Free Methodist Church in this city, have been waging a fierce warfare against everything and everybody not coming fully up to that point of perfect holiness to which they profess to have arrived. The rules of the church declare that no member shall wear fine clothes of any kind; that all unnecessary adornment of the person is a sin; that the use of tobacco in any form is a pollution of the temple of God, and is therefore a deadly sin; and that all secret societies are hell-born. In a word, perfect holiness is the chief plank in the platform of principles of the church. A pure heart is a necessary requisite for membership. None but pure spirits need apply. Rev. Mr. Dolan, from Washington, first came, like Jonah of old, and informed the inhabitants of Alexandria, as he paraded up and down King street, that they were all on their way to hell. His example was followed by the several members alluded to above. One of them went so far as to visit several of the churches and inform the congregations that they were being preached in hell. Devout females were made very angry by being told that unless they disposed with their barrettes, hats, and red, white and blue parasols, they would eternally wind up in that country where the worm dieth not and the fire is unquenchable. A few Sunday mornings ago Geo. Peverill, by his abusive language, created a row as a love feast. These intemperate men became so annoying that their conduct was complained of to the Mayor, who issued an order forbidding the congregation of large crowds on the street corners. So when Rev. Mr. Michael, the pastor of the church, accompanied by Messrs. English and Peverill, appeared on the corner of King and Fairfax streets yesterday week ago to express Knight Templarism, he was politely informed by a police officer that the Mayor had forbidden the entertainment. After protesting, and promising to look into the law, the reverend gentleman returned to his church, on South Lee street, where he delivered a speech to a small crowd. Yesterday afternoon at five o'clock, Messrs. English and Peverill again appeared on the corner. They were soon joined by Rev. Mr. Michael, who came from some meeting in the country. A large crowd was present. Something outside the usual order, was laid down in the minds of the three men, and they were taken to the station house where they were lodged in separate cells. On the way to the station house, the prisoners, who were followed by a large crowd, sang loudly, "I do believe, I now believe that Jesus died for me." At the station house they quoted Scripture texts, and Mr. Michael exhorted his companions to stand firm for Jesus, declaring that he had only that morning preached from the text, "Whatever ye do unto one of these my brethren, ye do unto me." Finding that their quarters were not so comfortable as they expected, they began to inquire what they must do to get out. They were informed that if they would leave ten dollars each with Capt. Webster as collateral for their appearance before the Mayor this morning and promise not to obstruct the sidewalks of the city any more during the day they would be released. After consultation the three agreed to this proposition and Mr. English gave his note for $30. As soon as released Rev. Mr. Michael gave notice to the crowd from the steps of the station house that he would deliver his lecture on Windmill Hill, right away, and invited all present to come and hear the truth. On Windmill Hill his audience was small and listless, and he repeated the same speech, without a change, delivered by him the Sunday previous. English and Peverill also spoke. English declared that the gates of heaven were closed to all members of secret societies, and Peverill said there was no minister in the city who dared tell the truth. Before pronouncing the benediction Mr. Michael stated that the excommunication of Old Fellowship the work of the Old had been changed, but that he had the changes, and intended to give them to the world. The few remaining of the entertainment through their dissonance.

BEFORE THE MAYOR.

Rev. J. F. Michael, Samuel English and George Peverill, according to promise, appeared before the Mayor, at the Mayor's office, at 11 o'clock this morning, when one of the most amusing trials on record took place. Peverill was picked up, denounced by Dickens, and tampered with this trial. The office was crowded. Mr. Michael conducted the defense, the witness, charging the three with obstructing the sidewalks and using obscene language was read, when Mr. Michael prepared prayer, this the Mayor objected to. Mr. Michael then requested his brethren to engage in silent prayer. The Mayor had no objection to this. Rev. Mr. Peverill, of the M. E. Church, and Messrs. Caton, Thomas, Leachman, Hopkins, and A. D. Warfield were upon the stand. Mr. Warfield said he would read the proceedings of the three men on the streets as a nuisance. Mr. Hopkins heard Mr. Michael make only one statement on the streets which he regarded as an obscene allusion. Mr. Leachman heard the three men criticize the several religious denominations of the city. Mr. Caton said Peverill had charged him with teaching a class of young men under his charge false doctrines. Rev. Mr. Peverill said Peverill had visited his church and assailed him, charging that he was preaching his congregation into hell. Mr. Michael interrogated the witnesses, and proposed to show what he had said about the several secret societies by the witnesses themselves, if they would answer a few questions. This proposition was ruled out. Mr. Michael then requested the Mayor to answer a few questions. This the Mayor declined to do, stating that this was the first time on record the Judge was arraigned by the criminal. Peverill attempted several times to exhort the crowd to repentance. He was interrupted each time. He admitted he had warned the female members of the churches, and urged them to put away high heeled shoes, paint, powder, huzzes, bangs and hair, and things, calculated to lead them away from God. Mr. Peverill, replied to Peverill's charge of being a man pleaser, by saying he heard no man, or set of men. He feared only women and his own soul. Peverill said, "Bless God, I don't fear women." Rev. Mr. Michael made a long speech in which he urged the Mayor, in giving judgment in the case, to remember that he would have some day to stand before the judgment bar of God. He was interrupted by the Mayor, who did not wish to be sealed out as a candidate for conversion. Mr. Michael proceeded, claiming that every word he had said about the churches and the secret societies was true, and therefore he could not be guilty of abusive language. He asked Mr.

Treadway if he endorsed the discipline of his church, to which Mr. Treadway replied that no church was pure, and no people could be holy. Peverill declared Mr. Treadway was wrong, he Peverill, committed no sin. Peverill started off with another solemn religious harangue, but was interrupted by the Mayor. Mr. English made a religious speech, in which he declared that he did not wish to violate any law. After Mr. English's speech the Mayor proposed that if the three would promise not to obstruct the sidewalks again, and confine their doings to their church, he would dismiss the case. This proposition was not accepted to, and Rev. Mr. Michael was fined $7, and Mr. Peverill $5. There was no evidence against Mr. English. The fines were promptly paid, and Mr. Michael bid the Mayor good bye, and hoped he would repent of his sins. Peverill warned him of the approaching judgment. Mr. Michael when asked if he intended to appeal from the judgment of the Mayor, replied, "No, the fair was over now, and he cared nothing about it."

PUBLIC SCHOOL EXAMINATION.

Superintendent Caroe began, this morning, the examination of the schools remaining in session, with that of Washington School, No. 6, taught by Miss S. Annie Schofield. According to the "Course of Study" prescribed in 1875, this being a first grade school, should have been taught "Spelling and Reading in First Reader; elements of Notation and Numeration; Addition and Subtraction of whole numbers," but to show how the schools have been advanced since that time, we give the examination below. First, ten boys were required to set down 2,500,000 and divide it by 8,002. Seven did it correctly in less than five minutes, three or seven minutes, and only two committed wrong and they but slightly. Of the 10,000 was then given to fourteen other boys to be divided by 11; all but one named correct property and all three worked it in one minute; nine in less than two; one in less than three; and one in six.

702,040 was given to twenty five other pupils to be multiplied by 80,412. Four committed wrong; four did it correctly in one minute; four in less than two; two in less than three; and one in less than four; while ten made slight errors.

Some verses from the Second Reader in script type, and abounding with illustrations, were given to be read and the readers were classified as follows: Very good, 14; good, 17; possible, 9; bad, 5; very bad, 9; though eight had used the book only since April 1st.

The writing was judged: Very good, 4; good, 25; possible, 12; bad, 3; very bad, 0. The Superintendent paid the highest compliment to the school and its teacher, saying that the progress was remarkable.

Lee School No. 3 was examined this afternoon. Lee No. 1 will be examined tomorrow; Washington, No. 1, on Wednesday, Washington, No. 2, on Thursday morning, and Washington, No. 3, on Thursday afternoon. The examination will take place at Embassy Hall on Friday.

The public schools have been more largely attended this year than ever before.

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.

Notwithstanding the weather yesterday was very close and warm, the churches had good congregations. Rev. Dr. Walker preached in Christ Church, and Rev. Mr. Whittlesey, of Washington, preached in the First Presbyterian Church, in the morning.

Rev. J. S. Shackelford who was announced to preach in Christ Church was unable to fill his appointment on account of sickness. Rev. Douglas Hoff, of this city, who was ordained a deacon at the Seminary, last week, preached in St. Paul's Church in the morning. In Grace Church, Rev. Samuel A. Wains, of Stafford county, preached in the morning, and Rev. Francis M. Barch, of Clarke county, at night. Rev. Dr. Shure, of Washington, preached morning and night in the Baptist Church, and Rev. Mr. Lipford, also of Washington, preached in the afternoon in the German Lutheran Church. Rev. Mr. Gardner, President Elder of the District, preached in the M. E. Church at night. The other pulpits were filled by the regular clergy.

Rev. Dr. Paulsen, of the M. E. Church, preached on "Heaven" and "Hell" to large congregations yesterday. The sermons are spoken of very highly.

Rev. Father Whyte, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, in this city, conducted services at Fairfax station yesterday.

A quarterly conference, Rev. Mr. Gardner, P. M. officiating, will be commenced at the M. E. Church South, in this city, to night, and close with a love feast Thursday night next.

Rev. J. W. Webb, colored, of this city, baptized two persons at Marshall Hall, and preached at Macedonia Church, Charles county, Md., yesterday.

The Gospel Temperance meeting, in the hall of the Reform Club, yesterday afternoon was largely attended. Geo. W. Francis conducted the services.

ANOTHER JOHN MARK.

The cowardly conduct of this primitive Christian caused the great trouble to have him for a companion in the later and Barnabas proposed a tour of inspection of the churches, because the said John deserted them on a former occasion. "And the contention was so sharp between them [Paul and Barnabas], the latter desiring the fellowship of John [that they departed] one from the other" (Acts xv-39). This passage of Scripture was read, and thought to mind yesterday afternoon when the street preacher and his brethren appeared at the corner of King and Fairfax streets and it was noticed, and the fact ever and over remarked upon, that the ringleader and reviver of that obsolete schism was among the missing. One was widely known indeed, and the fact of the boy's having been washed away and the danger subsided. Probably the horrors of a cell on a hot evening, which he knew to be inevitable if found in the company of the "brethren," caused him, like many weak human beings before, to desert his cause. "No man having put his hand to the plow and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God." (Luke ix-62).

THE CASE OF THE SAVINGS BANK OF ALEXANDRIA AGAINST THE EXECUTORS OF WM. F. MURDOCK.

In the Court of Common Pleas at Baltimore on Saturday the case of the Savings Bank of Alexandria, Va., against the executors of Wm. F. Murdock, deceased, came up before Chief Judge Brown on a demurrer to the plea of the executors, who were defendants. The principal question raised in the case was whether a receiver of a bank, appointed by a Virginia court, could sue a debtor of the bank in Maryland, either by bringing the suit in his own name, as receiver, or by bringing it in the name of the bank to his use as receiver. In support of this question Mr. Cowen argued that a receiver cannot sue and use the name of the bank to sue for his use; that his proper remedy was to have himself appointed receiver by a court in Maryland to take charge of the property and the debts of the bank which are to be found in Maryland. The court held the matter sub curra.

DEATH OF MR. MECHON.

Mr. Karl Ferdinand Mecher, a respectable German citizen, died at his residence, on Prince street, about nine o'clock this morning, after a long illness, from cerebral spinal meningitis. Mr. Mecher was born in Solingen, Prussia, January 11, 1825, and consequently in the 56th year of his age at the time of his death. He came to this country when about six years of age, and resided in Baltimore until 1860, when he removed to this city. Here he engaged in the meat business, occupying a stand in the market. He was the son of the late Daniel Mecher. The deceased was a good citizen, thought well of by everybody, and the news of his death will be received with regret. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon next, and will be attended by Potomac Lodge, No. 35, of Odd Fellows, and the German Benevolent Association, of which organization he was a prominent member.

DIED FROM HIS INJURIES.

The little colored boy who was so badly burned Friday evening last, by the explosion of a can of coal oil, into which he accidentally dropped a lighted match, after suffering intense agony, died yesterday afternoon at two o'clock. The funeral took place at the colored Methodist Church on Washington street this afternoon and was attended by the Sunday School of the Church, of which the deceased was a member. John Doane, the father of the deceased, was badly burned at the great fire on King street in 1855. He was again injured in 1873 at a fire and explosion at Mekeley's distillery, near the ass works.

COUNTY COURT ITEMS.

The June term of the County Court, Judge James Sargiser presiding, commenced in this city to day. All the officers elected at the recent election in the county held in and gave bond for the faithful performance of their respective duties. Moon Brown, colored, sentenced to be whipped at the last term of the court for petit larceny, was found guilty by the jury of entering a stable in the county in the night time and stealing a chicken, and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

Cruz vs. Mrs. Babba; indicted for selling liquor on Sunday; jury failed to agree, and case continued.

ANOTHER STOLEN ROBERT.—The fancy store kept by Mrs. Taylor, on King's road, near the corner of Alfred, was entered by thieves last night and robbed of a number of small articles. An examination revealed that the thief had entered through the rear window. This store was robbed a short time ago, the thief at that time effecting an entrance by breaking a large pane of glass in the show window. There is no clue to the perpetrator of either the or the Callan robbery Friday night. Ned Lacy, colored, was arrested this afternoon by Officer Goodrich on suspicion of being the guilty party.

POLICE NEWS.—Besides the cases of Rev. Mr. Michael, and Messrs. English and Peverill, charged with obstructing the sidewalks and using abusive language, no account of which will be found elsewhere in to day's Gazette, there were before the Mayor this morning two cases of drunkenness and disorderly conduct on the streets. Miss Harris, colored, for being drunk and disorderly on the streets, was fined and discharged. James Davis, also colored, for the same offense, was fined, and in default of the payment of the said fine, locked up.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.—When the steamer Excelsior on her four o'clock trip down the river yesterday afternoon touched at this city several persons from Washington left the steamer, among them a good natured, well dressed gentleman, who had apparently witnessed about five and a half decades of this world's history. After a few warm fence contentions his zigzag footsteps at length brought him safely over the gang plank to terra firma, when he made the statement as a witness that every body on the boat had just quitted was drunk but himself.

THE COMET.—The comet was plainly visible in the sky in the northwest from nine to eleven o'clock last night. It was sized at by large crowds all over the city. It was viewed by some with superstitious awe. The various prophecies regarding the wreck of worlds and the crash of matter formed the main topics of conversation. The strange visitor is regarded by the colored people as a sure harbinger of a bloody war.

PERSONAL.—Hon. John Goode passed through the city this morning on his way to Charlottesville, to attend a meeting of the Board of Visitors of the University of Virginia. He will be in Washington on Wednesday to attend a meeting of the Yorktown Commission.

Alexander R. Pendleton, ex-gov. of Westchester, is in the city a guest of S. C. Neale, (ex. gov.) Beauty, health, and happiness for ladies in "WINE OF CARDUI."
